

CREDENTIALS THAT MATCH THE MISSION

Executive development leadership, on the ground in the Caribbean.

Krystalore Crews, MBA

Executive Director · Caribbean Luxury Real Estate
Development & Strategic Partnerships

Executive Director, Island Developer Partnerships · International
Project & Communications Strategist · CEO, Crews Beyond Limits ·
Revive & Thrive Retreats · Her Next Mission

Krystalore brings direct, hands-on experience leading luxury real estate development in the Caribbean. In Roatán, Honduras, she assisted in investor relations, sales strategy, on-site operations and project management for a luxury real estate development, coordinating stakeholders and aligning strategic objectives with day-to-day execution.

A 22-year U.S. Air Force veteran, Krystalore brings extensive experience in executive leadership, project management, communications, and organizational transformation. Her work spans leadership consulting, executive coaching, nonprofit leadership, global retreats, and large-scale events, uniting strategic planning with engaging experiences that move people to action. At the Pentagon, she created and led a train-the-trainer program for more than 250 change agents, equipping leaders to drive meaningful change. Across every role, she brings the energy, presence, and operational expertise to turn big ideas into lasting impact.

Having called Puerto Rico home for the past three years, she combines firsthand Caribbean development expertise with a personal connection to the island's lifestyle, culture and communities. This combination positions her to help Oceano Breeze navigate the complexities of luxury development while creating a seamless experience for investors, prospective buyers, development partners and future residents.

Luxury Development & Project Management
